17 v.

18 METRO-GOLDWYN-MAYER
PICTURES INC., and
19 PARAMOUNT PICTURES
CORPORATION,

20 Defendants.

CASE NO. 2:17-cv-2704

COMPLAINT

JURY TRIAL DEMANDED

22 NATURE OF THE CASE

23 1. This action is brought under Section 301 of the Labor Management
24 Relations Act (“LMRA”), 29 U.S.C. § 185, for breach of a collective bargaining
25 agreement to which Plaintiff American Federation of Musicians of the United States

1 and Canada (“AFM”) and Defendants Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer Pictures Inc. (“MGM”)
2 and Paramount Pictures Corporation (“Paramount”) are parties. The agreement sets
3 forth the wages, terms, benefits and other conditions of employment applicable to 4 musicians represented by AFM who are engaged by MGM and Paramount in the 5 recording of motion picture film scores. MGM and Paramount violated the 6 agreement in connection with the scoring of the 2016 theatrical motion picture BEN
7 HUR, a film they co-produced, by failing to pay or cause their subcontractor to pay
8 the wages, benefits and residual compensation due under the terms of the agreement
9 to or on behalf of the bargaining unit musicians who recorded the score for that film.
10 MGM and Paramount violated the agreement also by failing to fulfill reporting and 11 studio access obligations expressly set forth in the agreement for purposes of ensuring 12 compliance. The AFM is now suing to recover breach of contract damages, including 13 all wages, benefits and residuals payable under the collective bargaining agreement.

14 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

15 2. This Court has jurisdiction over the case and the parties pursuant to 29
16 U.S.C. § 185 and 28 U.S.C. § 1331.

17 3. Venue lies in this District pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 185(a) and 28 U.S.C.
18 § 1391(b).

19 PARTIES

20 4. The Plaintiff AFM is a labor organization representing professional
21 musicians employed in the United States and Canada in all sectors of the music
22 industry, including studio recording musicians employed in the scoring of theatrical
23 motion pictures. AFM is a “labor organization representing employees in an industry
24 affecting commerce” within the meaning of the LMRA.

25 5. The Defendant MGM is a motion picture producer with a principal place
26 of business located at 245 North Beverly Drive, Beverly Hills, California 90210.

MGM regularly employs musicians represented by the AFM in the scoring of motion pictures in this District, and is an "employer" within the meaning of the LMRA.

6. The Defendant Paramount is a motion picture producer and distributor with a principal place of business located at 5555 Melrose Avenue, Hollywood, California 90038. Paramount regularly employs musicians represented by AFM in the scoring of motion pictures in this District, and is an "employer" within the meaning of the LMRA.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

7. Since around 1946, AFM has represented professional studio recording musicians and music preparation personnel in collective bargaining with the major motion picture producers of Hollywood. In its capacity as exclusive bargaining agent, AFM has negotiated and administered a series of collective bargaining agreements with the producers, each called "Basic Theatrical Motion Picture Agreement" (hereinafter, "Agreement"), establishing the wages, benefits, terms and conditions of employment of musicians engaged in the scoring of motion picture films.

8. The most recently negotiated terms of the Agreement became effective on April 5, 2015, and will expire on April 4, 2018.

9. Both MGM and Paramount are signatory parties to the Agreement.

10. The terms of the Agreement are applicable to all bargaining unit musicians employed by producers in the State of California or elsewhere in the United States and Canada whose services are rendered in connection with the production of theatrical motion pictures.

11. The bargaining unit classifications covered by the Agreement include, among others, instrumentalists, arrangers, orchestrators, music copyists, synthesized keyboard programmers, and conductors.

1       12. Whenever signatory producers employ bargaining unit musicians in the
2 United States or Canada in connection with the production of theatrical motion
3 pictures, they are required by the Agreement to provide compensation pursuant to the 4 compensation provisions of the Agreement, including those requiring the payment of
5 wages, contributions to the American Federation of Musicians and Employers
6 Pension Fund, contributions to health benefit funds, and residual revenue
7 contributions to the Film Musicians Secondary Markets Fund, to or on behalf of the 8 musicians so employed.

9       13. The Agreement includes mechanisms for ensuring signatory producers'
10 compliance with the minimum compensation requirements and other conditions of 11 employment of musicians under the Agreement. For example, the Agreement states,

12              The duly authorized business representative of the Federation and
13 any other representative duly authorized in writing by the Federation
14 shall be furnished a pass to the studio. He/she shall be permitted to visit,
15 during working hours, any portion of the studio necessary for the proper
16 conduct of the business of the Federation.

17              The Producer shall respond promptly to requests by the 18 Federation through such representatives for information relating to 19 Producer's performance of its duties and obligations under this 20 Agreement.

21              ...

22              Producer agrees that individuals under personal service contract
23 will be given an extra copy of such contract, which may be transmitted
24 to the Federation. The terms of such personal service contract shall not 25 be in violation of the terms of this Basic Agreement. The Producer will 26 furnish the Federation Representative with the name or names of such

1 individuals who sign such personal service contracts.

2 14. Customarily, producers report the employment of musicians covered by
3 the Agreement to AFM on a standardized report form, called a "B Form," which 4 indicates the hours and services rendered by each musician, his or her wages, and the 5 applicable contributions to the pension and health benefit funds.

6 15. The Agreement also expressly provides,

7 In the event Producer subcontracts out any work that would
8 otherwise be subject to this Agreement, Producer shall have the option
9 either: (a) to obtain from the subcontractor an agreement to comply with 10 the minimum compensation provisions in this Agreement, and cause
11 such subcontractor to comply with such provisions; or (b) in the 12 alternative, Producer shall make such payments.

13 16. On February 2, 2015, MGM and Paramount jointly announced that 14 principal photography for the theatrical motion picture BEN HUR had begun in Italy.

15 17. AFM is informed and believes, and on that basis alleges, that in 2015,
16 MGM and/or Paramount engaged the services of a third party doing business in 17 California as BH Productions LLC to provide for the composing, arranging,
18 orchestrating, recording, conducting, production and delivery of master recordings
19 of a musical score for BEN HUR.

20 18. AFM is further informed, and thereon alleges, that in August 2015, BH
21 Productions LLC entered into an all-inclusive fee contract with a California composer
22 who, for a fixed lump sum payment, agreed not only to compose a film score for BEN
23 HUR, but also to hire all instrumental musicians, arrangers, orchestrators,
24 programmers, music preparation personnel, and conductors necessary to record the 25 BEN HUR score and deliver the finished master recordings along with all other
26 results and proceeds of his services as a complete package.

19. Pursuant to this all-inclusive fee “package” agreement with BH Productions LLC, the composer composed a score for BEN HUR and arranged the hiring in California of bargaining unit musicians to perform work in California that would otherwise be covered by the Agreement in connection with recording the score for BEN HUR.

20. In August 2016, MGM and Paramount registered copyright co-ownership in the motion picture BEN HUR with the United States Copyright Office, and BEN HUR was released in theaters in North America with producer credits given to MGM and Paramount.

21. With respect to the bargaining unit work performed in California for the scoring of BEN HUR, no authorized representative of AFM was furnished with a pass to the studio during working hours.

22. With respect to the bargaining unit work performed in California for the scoring of BEN HUR, MGM and Paramount have failed and refused: (1) to provide a B Form report to AFM; (2) to provide AFM with a list of names of individuals employed under personal service contracts; and (3) to provide information requested by AFM relating to the performance of their duties and obligations under the Agreement, including the hours and services rendered by each musician, his or her wages, and the applicable contributions to the pension and health benefit funds.

23. MGM and Paramount have failed and refused either to cause BH Productions LLC or the composer to comply with the compensation provisions of the Agreement, including those requiring the payment of wages, contributions to pension and health benefit funds, and residual revenue contributions to the Film Musicians Secondary Markets Fund, to or on behalf of the musicians employed in the scoring of BEN HUR, or in the alternative, to make such payments.
